

Swipe, pinch and zoom to the courtroom

(<http://www.economist.com/node/21561912>)

Find the right words or expressions in the text and match them with the definitions given below.

Paragraph 1

_____ - static photographs (especially ones taken from a movie and used for advertising purposes)

_____ - ridicule in a mischievous manner; tease

Paragraph 3

_____ - stylishly and often flashily attractive

_____ - an often intense natural inclination or preference

_____ - regulating, controlling, or keeping in order

_____ - examined for needed repairs; dismantled in order to make repairs

Paragraph 6

_____ - spring or bounce back after hitting or colliding with something

_____ - aim or concentrate on an exact target location

_____ - make a bad situation even worse for someone by doing something else to upset them

_____ - stole, exploited, cheated

Sources: <http://www.thefreedictionary.com>, www.merriam-webster.com/dictionary

Swipe, pinch and zoom to the courtroom - Answers

(<http://www.economist.com/node/21561912>)

Find the right words or expressions in the text and match them with the definitions given below.

Paragraph 1

stills - static photographs (especially ones taken from a movie and used for advertising purposes)

poke fun at - ridicule in a mischievous manner; tease

Paragraph 3

snazzy - stylishly and often flashily attractive propensity - an often intense natural inclination or preference policing - regulating, controlling, or keeping in order overhauled - examined for needed repairs; dismantled in order to make repairs

Paragraph 6

rebound - spring or bounce back after hitting or colliding with something zero in on - aim or concentrate on an exact target location to add insult to injury – to make a bad situation even worse for someone by doing something else to upset them

ripped off - stole, exploited, cheated

Sources: <http://www.thefreedictionary.com>, www.merriam-webster.com/dictionary